

CHRISTINE ANDREOLI

Website Bio

Christine Andreoli, Board Member, is a New York litigation attorney and family law mediator with a deep commitment to the arts. Ms. Andreoli has sung with numerous church, college and community ensembles and participated in local theatrical productions. Ms. Andreoli has performed in New York Grand Opera's fully-staged Central Park productions of Tosca, La Traviata, Aida, and Il Trovatore and she studies privately with its Artistic Director, Maestro Vincent La Selva. Ms. Andreoli is also a member of Church Music Association of America and a student in The Juilliard School's Opera Performance Workshop.

In addition to her volunteer work for SCH, Ms. Andreoli is a volunteer for the New York Grand Opera and a member of its Guild. Ms. Andreoli is also a performing member of the New York City Bar Association Entertainment Committee and she has also produced, and performed in, concerts for the Chamber Music Committee of the City Bar. As an attorney, she has been active in pro bono work, and received an Award for Outstanding Legal Advocacy from Sanctuary for Families for her work on behalf of victims of domestic violence.

Ms. Andreoli received her undergraduate degree in Government from Cornell University and her J.D. cum laude from Fordham University School of Law where she was a member of the Fordham Law Review, the National Trial Advocacy Team and the Moot Court Board. She was trained as a mediator by The Center for Family & Divorce Mediation in Manhattan.