BIOGRAPHY

Rachel Carter-White

Executive Director, Schola Cantorum on Hudson
Operations Director of Project Encore™ of Schola Cantorum on Hudson

Rachel Carter White has held the position of Executive Director of Schola Cantorum on Hudson since 2007. Ms. Carter-White's focus has been, primarily, in the development arena. She has worked for various non-profit arts organizations including: Orchestra of St. Luke's, Midori and Friends, and The Friends of the Budapest Festival Orchestra.

Ms. Carter-White also maintains an active performing schedule. As a dramatic soprano, she has been seen in performances with One World Symphony, California Music Festival, New York Opera Forum, Opera on Tap, and Portland Opera. A frequent recitalist, Ms. Carter-White has performed extensively in her native Virginia, North Carolina, California and New York, with works ranging from Bach to Birtwistle.

An interest in contemporary music led her to collaborations with many composers in the New York area and performances with groups like Anti-Social Music and Vox Novus, and Brooklyn College's ConTempo Ensemble under the direction of Tania León.

Ms. Carter-White earned her Bachelor's degree in vocal performance from the Manhattan School of Music, and her Master's degree in vocal performance from Brooklyn College. She lives on Long Island with her husband and son.
