SCHOLA CANTORUM ON HUDSON ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD CHAIR

Andrew P. Jones takes the helm

Jersey City, NJ – Schola Cantorum on Hudson (SCH) announced today that Andrew P. Jones has been elected Chair of the Board of Directors effective July 1, 2010. Jones succeeds Salvatore A. Diana, who retired from the board after five years of service.

“I will continue building on the solid governance foundation that has been laid by my predecessors in regards to organizational structure, policy and procedure development, and a commitment to transparency,” said Jones.

Jones has been an active singing member and volunteer for SCH since 2007. His accomplishments over the previous three seasons include serving on the management and operations team, leading the go-live launch of the website ScholaOnHudson.org, and establishing the organization’s inaugural grassroots fundraising campaign.

“As a member of our management team, Andrew Jones has been instrumental in advancing the goals of the organization,” said Executive Director Rachel Carter-White. “With his project management skills and his knowledge of and experience with our organization, he is the right person to lead us as we face the critical challenges of leading an arts organization at this difficult time.”

Jones added, “During this tough economic environment, my primary focus will be on financial stability: seeking to build upon our current relationships, develop new sources of revenue, and develop our audiences.”
